

MISS / LOSE

| MISS | |
|---|---|
| USOS | EJEMPLOS |
| Llegar tarde (para coger el tren, el autobús...) | I was late and finally I missed the train. |
| Echar de menos o añorar a alguien/algo. | She lives in England now. She misses her family a lot. |
| Fallar un penalti. | Unluckily, Messi missed the penalty. |
| No oír algo que se ha dicho. | Can you repeat, please? I missed what you said. |
| No ver/advertir algo. No darse cuenta de algo. | I have missed your WhatsApp messages. |
| Perderse un evento (un partido, un concierto, una reunión, una fiesta...) | I am very tired. I think I'm going to miss the party. |
| Perder una oportunidad, no aprovechar una oportunidad. | She rejected a job in New York. I think she has missed a great opportunity. |

LOSE

| USOS | EJEMPLOS |
|---|--|
| Perder algo (el trabajo, un objeto...) | She lost her keys in that trip. Last year I lost my job. |
| Pérdida de alguien. | She lost her dad when she was 18 years old. They lost their grandmother yesterday. She had a cancer. Sixty lives were lost in the flood. |
| Perder en algún tipo de juego (perder un partido de fútbol, perder en un juego cualquiera...) | She lost that science game. They lost the football match. |
| Perderse en un lugar. | They got lost when they were in Amsterdam. |
| Perderse en una conversación. | Can you repeat that? You're losing me. |